"Climbing this tower for the first time was a new challenge that provided me an opportunity to overcome my fear of heights in a safe environment with encouraging support. After I did it, all I thought was, 'Yes, I did it. I persevered! I accomplished a leap of faith stepping off that small platform for the zip line!'"

- Virginia, adult first-time climber

Climbing Tower, Zip Line &
Team Building

Why Climb?

At 35 feet high, this outdoor experience offers opportunity for learning and growth by stretching individual comfort zones and discovering dynamics between climber and belayer. Here at Taconic Retreat Center, our certified climbing staff is committed to engaging climbers in a supportive and encouraging manner so individuals and/or groups face challenges with confidence. Hey, and climbing is FUN!

Build A Team!

Hard work can transform your group into a cooperative unified crew. Let us lead you through activities to boost trust, increase confidence and encourage the formation of a team! Through a variety of fun games and partner work, our High 5 adventure-trained facilitators support individual and interpersonal development. Problem solving activities help participants work out differences in a constructive manner.
